REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION

Changes or corrections to birth records that can be made by this office are limited by law and are subject to very specific supporting documentation. In general, you must include with this application, at least two (2) pieces of dated documentary evidence. To change any part of the name requires two documents dated close to the time of birth. (Exception: Only one document dated five years ago is required to correct the spelling of the first or middle name of the person named on the record). If you are requesting that the name on the record be changed due to a legal name change, only the court order is needed for documentation. If you need more information or have questions, you may call our Changes Unit direct at 517-335-8660.

CHANGING YOUR GENDER MARKER MORE THAN ONCE (MICHIGAN)

- A court order is required for subsequent changes to the gender marker
- Steps:
  - File a motion on your original name change case
  - Request a "motion for hearing" form from your circuit court
  - Pay the $20 filing fee
  - Submit the motion online, by mail, or in person
- If your original case was ex parte, no new hearing is usually required—the judge may sign it and send via email
- If not ex parte, you'll need a new court hearing

OUT-OF-STATE BIRTH CERTIFICATES & STATE-SPECIFIC ISSUES

- Each state handles gender markers differently:
  - Some states (like Michigan) allow self-attestation
  - Others require medical transition documentation
  - A few still require you to sue the state (e.g., Ohio)
- Federal rules (e.g., the Biden Admin's 2021 mandate) required all states to create a mechanism for changing gender markers—but enforcement varies.
  - We don't yet know how the January 2025 Executive Order will affect compliance in conservative states.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS FOR GENDER MARKER CHANGES

- Military Records:
  - May require medical proof or DD Form 149 to correct gender on file
- Insurance:
  - Some systems use gender markers to determine procedure coverage (e.g., pap smears or prostate exams)
  - Providers can override with “administrative sex” or special codes
- Passports:
  - Can still be updated, but legal support may be needed. Details vary depending on the current federal policy climate.

PASSPORTS & GENDER MARKERS - ACT NOW

- A federal court has ordered the State Department to issue passports with self-identified gender markers again.
  - This includes M, F, and X options.
- The ACLU encourages trans, nonbinary, and gender-expansive people to apply now while the State Department is complying with the ruling.
  - Warning: The government may appeal. If a higher court blocks the ruling, the restrictive policy could return and affect pending applications.
